

It is such a pleasure not to be disturbed at home by telemarketers. The most annoying thing is to come home after a day in the office, making dinner, trying to eat dinner and have telemarketers call. The NJ laws should not be changed.